Sherwood Eddy To Address Students At S. I. N. U.

Y. M. and Y. W. Exert Strong Influence in Life of Students

The Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. are two of the older organizations of the campus. The former was organized the first year of the school's life by Miss Ruck, the first woman on the faculty. The membership has increased from a charter membership of about twelve until it is now ten times as large.

These two organizations work hand in hand to give the students of the campus an opportunity for spiritual growth and leadership which is not offered in any of the other organizations.

The benefits to be derived from these organizations and the opportunities which they offer are not measured in dollars and cents nor in feet and inches. It is mental, spiritual and physical. It stays with you after school days are over.

At various times they have brought to us, men and women who have helped students to solve personal problems and difficulties.

Through their influence each year a number of young men and young women are enabled to spend part of their vacation at the Lake Geneva camps. Others are enabled to attend conferences and conventions in various parts of the United States.

Now under the auspices of these organizations Sherwood Eddy is coming to give a lecture course April 22, 23 and 24. These lectures form a series. No lecture is complete in itself. Plan to attend each lecture.

It teaches us to place more value on our leisure time.

It increases our mental and physical ability and therefore helps to solve life's problems.

It fills our hours with wholesome exercise, study or thought.

It increases interest in the worth while things of life,

It helps to develop the greatest asset of all character.

It helps to overcome temptations.

It encourages self-discipline.

It discourages idleness.

It is a friend to every young person.

It provides an outlet for energy.

LIFE OF SHERWOOD EDDY, EARLY DEDICATED TO BETTERMENT OF MANKIND

Sherwood Eddy, now a world figure in Christian leadership, was graduated at Yale in 1891. In 1896 he went to India to work among the students of the Indian Empire. After fifteen years of service there, he was called to be Secretary for Asia for the International Y. M. C. A. Committee. In this capacity he devoted nine years of service to the students of India, China, Japan, the Near East and Russia.—years characterized by his brilliance, energy, judgment and devotion.

The officials of China, from the President and Vice-President down to the governors and local officials received Mr. Eddy, sometimes sending out official proclamations of the meetings.

During the early years of the war, Mr. Eddy was with the British Army in France and during the closing year, on the American, British and French fronts. Since the close of the war his regular work has taken him across Asia, including Egypt, Palestine, Syria and Turkey, and his twenty-four years of service in lands abroad has fitted him to deal in truer perspective with the world situation as a moral challenge to America.

During these years of zealous activity Mr. Eddy has found time to write such books as "Supreme Decision," followed by "The Awakening of India," "The New Era in Asia," "The Students of Asia," "With Our Soldiers in France," and his latest work, "The New World of Labor."

Mr. Eddy's work has been of such vital nature that he has had special opportunities for interviews with the leading men of Europe, including President Ebert, the King of Bulgaria, members of Cabinets, as well as students and professors of European Universities. Out of the richness of his experience he brings lectures centering around the unrest and groping of youth.

Without a doubt few men are as fitted to help us solve our problems of international, racial, social, campus, intellectual, personal and religious life.

Only once in a lifetime do we have opportunity to hear vital living messages, such as Sherwood Eddy brings. With only one week to be spent in Illinois, and the old Normal only favored with a two-day visit, we may consider ourselves fortunate to be favored with this opportunity.

Hear the complete courses of lectures!

LEGISLATORS VISIT S. I. N. U.

Great Things for the Teachers' College

The school is honored quite frequently by the visits of celebrities who come on business or pleasure to see the largest normal school in Illinois. Last Thursday a group of very distinguished visitors appeared in chapel and gave the students and faculty a rare treat in the form of good speeches and a vacation from the third hour classes (no tears shed).

The important personages were the committee from the legislature down from Springfield on a tour of inspection.

In his speech introducing the legislators to the students, President Shryock said in part: "When I go up to Springfield to see them or to ask for something, I have to sit back and wait for them to tell me when I can speak, but now I'm the boss, and I'm going to talk and let these men know what we want." And the students and faculty listened to one of the best political speeches ever made on the chapel platform.

He then introduced Mr. Waller of Tamaroa, who had been a student in this school thirty-two years ago. He was greeted with a loud applause, and the student body was at once all attention. He was a forceful speaker and entertained his audience with many clever and well chosen stories. Mr. Waller is a true friend to this school, a real fellow and drives the best car on the market.

He introduced Mr. James H. Foster of Macomb, chairman of the committee. "This is my first visit to Egypt, and I must say I'm delighted with it." Everybody is, Mr. Foster, after he once sees it.

Mr. A. L. Hutson of Colfax, next gave a short, snappy speech, followed by Mr. Anderson of Monticello. He refused to be called a lawyer as he had been introduced, but insisted that he was a farmer.

Last came Mr. Thomas P. Sennett of Rock Island, who very gracefully got out of making a long speech by saying, "It's an unwritten law among us fellows (yes, we're pretty sure he

DEDICATED TO EDWIN MARKHAM

BY PROXY

Today I met a poet
All saintly and serene,
Today I walked in dreamland
And dreamed a wondrous dream.

Yes, today I wandered idly
In the Never-never land,
While my heart surged to its music,
And a poet held my hand.

But alas, I am but tongue-tied,
And my lips cannot express
All the beauty of his presence,
All the peace and loveliness.

So I kneel alone, in silence,
Before the mystic shrine.
While the poet makes his offer
Of the rhythmic and divine.

For alas, I cannot utter
All the tho'ts that surge and flee,
And I walk alone and humbly
While the poet sings for me.

SPRING FEVER

Not exactly lazy,
Yet I want to sit
In the mornin' hazy
An' jest dream a bit.
Haven't got ambition
For a single thing—
Regular condition
Ev'ry bloomin' spring.

Want to sleep at noontime
(Ought to work instead),
But along at noontime
Hate to go to bed.
Find myself a-stealth'
For a sunny spot—
Jest that springy feelin',
That is what I've got.

Like a set awishin'
Fer a pipe an' book.
Like to go a-fishin'
In a meadow brook
With some fish deceiver,
Underneath a tree—
Jest the old spring fever,
That's what's ailing me!

Forests and Forest Life.

ENTER COLLEGE

PRESS CONTEST

The Egyptian is entered in the col-lege newspaper contest conducted by the Illinois College Press Associa-tion. The members of the associa-tion are: Illinois College Rambler, Illinois Women's Greetings, Green-ville Papyrus, Lake Forest Stentor, Northern Illinois, Shurtleff Pioneer, Illinois Wesleyan Argus and Wheaton Record.

There are eighteen papers entered in the contest—seven class A and eleven class B. The News, being of intermediate size, was entered in class B. This includes those papers named above, except the Wesleyan Argus and Lake Forest Stentor. It also includes some of the old mem-bers—the Eureka Pegasus, Normal Vidette, North-Western Chronicle, Egyptian (Carbondale), and West-ern Courier (Macomb). The class A papers are: Augustana Observer, Bradley Tech, Knox Student, Lam-bard Review Alumnus, Millikin De-caturian, Lake Forest Stentor, and Wesleyan Argus.

The winners in each class gets a loving cup. Scores are based on three things: Makeup, news writing, and editorials. Three representative issues of The Egyptian had to be sub-mitted in each of these departments. The contest this year will be judged at the University of Iowa School of Journalism.

Convention May 9

The third annual convention will be held at Rock Island on May 9, 1925. The staff of the Augustana Observer are preparing to entertain the seven-ty-five or more who will attend. Well known editors and advertising men will be secured for the earlier sessions of the day. C. H. Weller, director of the school of journalism, University of Iowa, will speak at the banquet that evening.

The Egyptian will be represented at this important gathering, but de-tails are not yet known.

MISS BUCK CELEBRATES HER 80TH BIRTHDAY

When the students saw Miss Buck sitting on the platform along with the faculty and distinguished guests last Thursday morning, they thought she was paying one of her usual vis-its to the school. But the occasion was quite an unusual one. It was in honor of her 80th birthday. "My rel-atives were all too far away to help me celebrate," she said, "and I natu-rally turned my steps toward the spot where I had spent so many busy, but happy hours."

Miss Buck walked all the way out to school to be present at the chapel exercises Thursday morning and was as enthusiastic and gay as a young girl, but unlike most persons of her sex she was delighted to tell people her exact age. She is indeed well preserved for a woman of her age, her hearing is good and her eyesight unusual, in spite of the fact that she has earned her living for nearly sixty years through her eyes.

She was the first woman of the S. I. N. U. faculty and the only sur-viving member of that first faculty. Her former students are scattered throughout the United States and all remember her with much reverence and kindness.

CONFIDENCE GETS RESULTS

Confidence gets results in more than one way. First have enough confidence in yourself to do a thing individually. If you have the "I can and will do it" spirit, there is nothing to hinder you from doing it. Don't have enough confidence in yourself to be overbearing. But realize that you have the ability and use to the best advantage. A great number of people refrain from taking part in numerous activities because they are too self-conscious and not self-confident. Then there is another way to have confidence. Believe in others and make others believe in you. We really never know people until we have talked to them understandingly. The reason many people are called "eccentric" is due to the fact that it is hard to win them over. So, besides achieving success, confidence secures friends.

A VISITOR OF VALUE

Do you realize what a real opportunity you are to have this week? For three whole days Sherwood Eddy will be in our midst and will speak to us several times. We can certainly feel proud to have him with us as we could ask for no higher type of person to speak to us.

Mr. Eddy is a man who understands life. He knows its struggles and its opportunities. He is interested in the problems that the American student has to face. He has made a deep study of the social phase of life and sees its needs. We may appreciate deeply the worth of this man who is giving his life for the betterment of humanity.

College life would be worth little if the student gained knowledge alone. The building of character should be the aim of every young man and young woman during this period of life. They should make a high moral standard their goal of achievement then put forth every effort to pass all the obstacles that may get in their path. Sherwood Eddy is spending his time helping people to go around the stumbling blocks that they may come in contact with along their road of achievement.

AWAKE WITH THE WORLD

Once more spring rushes in to greet us! The world has taken on its ever welcome garment of fresh green. The trees are boldly unfolding their long hidden leaves while the violets peep out to watch them. The birds seem to get happier every day for their songs grow sweeter and brighter with the dawning of each morning. Of course, Mr. Frog, with his innumerable tribe, has assembled to use his voice in loudly proclaiming the good news.

And again we can smell that fragrant, refreshing spring odor which makes us feel that we are apart from all earthly things. The orchards have blossomed out in their lovely pink and white. "Have you plucked the apple blossoms in the spring?" And caught their subtle odors?

Pink buds bursting at the light,
Crumpled petals baby white.
Just to touch them a delight!
In the spring?

If you have not you have missed something worth while. In order that Mother Nature does not get ahead of us we must awaken with her. She does make us want to display our most brilliant costumes but do we have her energy and enthusiasm? The tendency is to affect us in the opposite way. But this year we are not going to let her "get the best" of us for we are going to live too!

TEN TEACHERS ACCEPT DECATUR POSITIONS

Ten of the Sophomore girls have accepted positions in the Decatur public schools. Decatur is an exceptionally good position for any teacher, and the faculty feel fortunate in being able to place so many graduates in this system. It is situated in the heart of Illinois. It has a good school system, under the supervision of Supt. Richeson, who came to Carbondale in search of teachers last week, and who seemed well pleased with the names he took back with him. They are:

Vesta Connaway.
Gertrude Gaines.
Jewell Finley.
Mary Kinchloe.
Joyce Moyers.
Gustava Wheelles.
Opal Wright.
Sada Dunn.
Gertrude Smith.

S. I. N. U. sent several girls to Decatur last year and it speaks doubly well for the school to know that the superintendent desires to fill all vacancies with Carbondale graduates.

MILL STREET STUDENTS STAGE SUCCESSFUL PROGRAM FOR ZETETS

The girls from Mill street worked up a very interesting program and presented it before a large audience at the Zetetic Society last Friday night. Miss Rhoda Mae Baker from the training school added a pleasant attraction to the program with her much enjoyed readings.

The program was:

Music ..... Orchestra
Reading ..... Capitola Jones
Piano solo ..... Norman Beasley
Reading ..... Rhoda Mae Baker
Play ..... Dicky Trent

Miss Jones has had about five years of elocution and certainly rendered an enjoyable reading. We hope Miss Jones can appear again.

The one act play was staged in Paris. Mrs. Jack, the chaperone, and five young girls, all with their names beginning with "J." are the lady characters.

Dicky Trent, an American, appeared, made love to each girl, and then to the chaperone. They all wrote a note of acceptance and signed each note with a "J". Confusion followed, but all ended well when the girls appeared taking it all as a joke.

If you missed this program come to the next, it will be equally as good.

MILDRED R. BONE SINGS AT CARBONDALE ROTARY CLUB

Miss Mildred R. Bone of the East St. Louis High school and a prominent Junior this year sang a number of excellent selections last Tuesday for the Rotary club. Miss Bone has a voice of unusual tone quality and is being called upon frequently for solo work.

BURTIS TREES AND ELLIS CRANDLE NOW ON EGYPTIAN STAFF

Due to vacancies in the staff this term it was necessary to add to the Egyptian force. The new members are Burtis Trees and Ellis Crandle. Mr. Trees is a writer of some note, as you will have noticed. He is the author of the article on the S. I. T. A. and many others.

Harrisburg—A party, composed of 30 members of the Zetetic society of the Carbondale Normal school visited the studio of R. O. Burke & Co. in this city last night to broadcast a radio program that was one of the best heard from Station WEBQ this year. The visitors came in a special bus and were here long enough to give the program and visit for a brief time.

TRI-CLUB TO HOLD ANNUAL DEBATE, MAY 4

This year the three debating societies, the Forum, the Agora, and the Illinae, will engage in their annual debate on the evening of May 4. The subject is: "Resolved, that cabinet members should be accorded all the privileges of a congressman except the power of voting." The debate this year is of especial interest because on the results depends the permanent possession of the For-Agor-Ill. Cup. The Illinae won the cup in 1922, while the series for 1924 resulted in a tie and the cup was given to the For-Agor-Ill. Last year the Agora was the victor. If the Agora wins again this year the cup will become a permanent possession of that society.

AG. CLUB NEWS

The Ag. Club was well attended last Wednesday evening. Due perhaps to one of two reasons. First, because of the efforts of the new president and the program committee, or the beautiful weather which makes us all homesick for the farm news. The following program was rendered:

Selections by Ag. Club Quartette.
Reading—Harley Hammock.
Poultry on the Farm—Cecil Dorris.
Music—Mildred Logan.

In so far as time and effort will permit the club endeavors to keep before the members the importance of taking part in the club work. No other phase of work is so badly neglected in the rural communities as the development of the newer ideas along the line of scientific agriculture. It is through the teachers who take part in the discussion of these problems, and who go into these communities to teach, that this knowledge can be given to the farmers in such a way as to be useful to them. What we need in this present age is more scientific agriculture, and until this idea becomes incorporated in the systems of farmers, agriculture will still be on the decline. As a member of this organization let me urge those who are interested in giving to the farm boys and girls something worth while along the lines of club work and social life, not to lose this golden opportunity of getting your basic training in the Ag. Club.

SIGMA ALPHA PI ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MEETS

The Alumni Association of the Sigma Alpha Pi held its annual spring meeting at the time of the Southern Illinois Teachers' Association. Several matters of important interest to the fraternity were discussed. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, D. Ransom Sherretz, Collinsville, Ill.; vice president, Lester Buford, West Frankfort, Ill.; secretary-treasurer, Chas. Millspaugh, Ina, Ill. The members of the board of directors are the elective officers: Claud Parsons, Golconda, Ill.; Russell Clemens, Golconda, Ill.; and August Meyer, Brookport, Ill.

FORUM MEETING

The feature of the regular weekly meeting of the Forum Debating Club for Monday, April 13, was a talk given by Prof. E. G. Lentz, the adviser. Mr. Lentz talked, for the most part, on the value of debate in thinking and in speaking; and on "the rules of the game."

The rest of the program consisted of talks and discussions on the question for the Tri-Club Debate to be held May 4.

Warren Van Brehen (with contempt)—"Girls always giggle more than boys."

Teddy Barrett—"That's because they have to look at the boys."

FAITH

Fain would I hold my lamp of life aloft,
Like yonder tower built high above the reef;
Steadfast, though tempests rave or winds blow soft,
Clear, though the skies dissolve in tears of grief.

For darkness passes, storms shall not abide:
A little patience and the fog is past;
After the sorrow of the ebbing tide,
The singing flood returns in joy at last.

The night is long, and pain weighs heavily,
But God will hold His world above despair;
Look to the East, where up the lucid sky
The morning climbs! The day shall yet be fair.

WIFE AND SECRETARY ACCOMPANY MR. EDDY ON SPEAKING TOUR

One of the very interesting features of Sherwood Eddy's visit here is that he will be accompanied by his wife and secretary, Pat Malin.

Mrs. Eddy frequently travels with Mr. Eddy. She is a very interesting woman and will be of especial interest to all the girls of the school. She will be entertained at Anthony Hall and the Sorority house while she is here. She will be prepared to hold private interviews and we are sure that much good will result from these. We cannot speak too highly of Mrs. Eddy and hope that she will be well entertained during her entire visit.

Pat Malin, Mr. Eddy's fellow worker, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, where he was a very prominent student, being valedictorian of his class, editor in chief of the college paper, star debater, fraternity leader, president of Senior honorary society, and last but by no means least, president of the Young Men's Christian Association. Mr. Malin has now been with Mr. Eddy long enough to be able to tell of the Universal problems of life. He will be prepared to hold interviews and group meetings. Mr. Malin will be entertained at the Fraternity House while he is here. It is hoped and planned that the students will take advantage of these opportunities above mentioned, and will attend all the meetings regularly. The Y. M. and Y. W. are depending on you to make this visit a great success. Many of the everyday problems will be discussed and it is hoped that the life on the campus will be made of a more noble and spiritual type as a result of this visit. Remember that all people are welcome. We request that you come and bring all your friends, thus helping the Y's to give our visitors a real welcome while they are here.

FRESHMEN AND JUNIORS ATTEND ANTHONY HALL TEA

"One or two lumps?" was the query heard so often in the living room of Anthony Hall Wednesday afternoon at the Freshman Tea. And judging from the number who attended and the various comments this affair was a decided success.

The social committee of the S. I. N. U. sponsored the tea and to them all credit and much thanks should be given for such a delightful affair.

The living room of the hall was charmingly decorated with dogwood blossoms and spyorrhea. The tea table was a masterpiece of dainty and tempting deliciousness. The centre decoration was a large bowl of white spyorrhea. Grouped around this were the candles.

Those "pouring" were: Misses Jones, Woody, Williams, Trovillion, Hardin, Hickson, Entsminger, King.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Mathes, Mrs. Chastaine, Mr. Frank Smith, Mr. Morris. Selections from grand opera, light opera, and popular tunes furnished the repertoire.

About 400 freshmen and juniors were served.

O. M. KARRAKER AD- DRESSES ALUMNI MEM- BERS OF S. I. T. A.

A new program feature of the recent meeting of the Southern Illinois State Teachers' Association was a S. I. N. U. section meeting presided over by W. T. Felts, class of '94, and addressed by O. M. Karraker, an alumnus and a prominent banker of Harrisburg.

At present the course of education as represented by the state teachers' colleges is losing the influence of the teachers' college alumni because of a lack of organization of these alumni. Teachers' college alumni do not have the class and school spirit highly developed as other colleges and universities do. This is due primarily to the rapidly changing personnel of the teachers' college student body. Most of the teachers' college alumni during their school days attend intermittently and thus lose those fellowship contacts that students in other colleges and universities get.

To overcome this disadvantage the Alumni associations of the several teachers' colleges of Illinois are working towards a teachers' college alumni federation.

The alumni section meeting at the recent teachers' meeting was to put the members from this school to work along that line.

Mr. Karraker mapped out a practical line of procedure looking towards that end. It is planned to have other meetings of this kind until not only a more compact organization of our own alumni is affected, but in addition this association is in turn federated with the associations from the other teachers' colleges of the state.

Until this is done the school will never be able to utilize the potential power of its alumni for its own welfare.

S. I. T. A. PAYS TRIBUTE OF APPRECIATION TO PRESIDENT SHRYOCK

As a climax the biggest and most successful year of the long history of the Southern Illinois Teachers' Association, a sufficient sum was unanimously voted for the framing of the portrait of Mr. Shryock. This was indeed a fitting tribute paid a great man by a great organization. Mr. Shryock has been a lifetime friend of the S. I. T. A. Their interests have been his interests, their ambitions his ambitions, and finally their success has been his success. He has seen and sponsored a steady growth from infancy to the most powerful and influential teachers' organization in Illinois. Mr. Shryock in his long connection with the S. I. T. A. has developed a system of education in Southern Illinois that has no peers. For the last quarter of a century Mr. Shryock and the S. I. T. A. have been practically synonymous. They have worked hand in hand, faithfully and carefully until they have put "Egypt" on the map, educationally, in such characters that nothing can blot out S. I. T. A. You have acted nobly in your small way, for anything of intrinsic value is small when it is given in recognition of undying, self sacrificing friendship and service. May you always have as true a friend as Mr. Shryock.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

The Egyptian desires to urge students to trade as much as possible with the merchants who advertise with us. These merchants, by advertising with us, pay for the publishing of the paper. They are the people of the town who show an interest in the school and are usually the most progressive merchants. You will find the latest styles and the best prices at the stores of our advertisers. They are most interested in the students and are most sympathetic with their needs. We do not ask you to trade with them if you can do better elsewhere, but usually you will find that your money goes farther when you trade with our advertisers.

If you will mention the Egyptian when shopping it will show them that you appreciate their help and will give us prestige with our advertisers.

WEE WUNDER

Why Lloyd Norman is so sad now?
Why the only answer some people give in their classes is "present"?

If the tea leaves, has the coffee grounds for divorce?

If you are the small town, cute, village cut-up that Mr. Shryock speaks of so often in chapel?

Where's the fellow who can wind he watches of the night?

What makes so many of the fellows "Girl Shy"?

What makes Marion Atkin's hair so curly?

What S. O. P. H. stands for?

How Ada and Pat can think of nothing to talk about every single night? -

Why some women don't even jump at bugs and mice, but they do at conclusions?

Why is it no matter how high the cost of living goes, writing paper will always be stationery?

If a trained flea is one you pick up in a sleeping car?

Why there is a great deal of insect powder sold, but practically no insect rouge?

If a June bug goes out of office the first day of July?

If the letter "A" is like 12 o'clock because it is in the middle of day?

Will you wee wunder too?

MAROONS LOSE FIRST GAME; COACH PERNELL WELL PLEASED

The Maroons played their first game of the season with the fast Carterville nine.

Although they lost the game by one run, it was a good game for both spectators and players.

The batteries for Carterville were Sanders, catcher, Coates and Scott, pitchers. For Carbondale Johnson, catcher; Pankey, Henieger and Jessen each pitching three innings.

In the first inning Pernell got on base with a nice single and was able to score when Van Behren singled to right field. Pankey pitching for Carbondale, struck out three men in the first inning.

In the second inning Parriot scored for Carterville, thus tying the score.

In the third inning Pernell and Rhive scored for Carbondale while Carterville failed to score.

Henieger went in for Pankey at the start of the fourth and no scores were made on either side in the fourth and fifth innings.

In the sixth inning Carbondale got two men on third. Hight, trying to score on a long throw, was put out on home plate. Pernell was left on third. In this inning Parriot and Carney scored for Carterville, while Sanders was left on third.

In the seventh Behren and Hyten, who replaced Staley, got on base. Hartley came to bat with a man on third and popped to left field and Behren scored after the catch. Greer was thrown out at first. Johnson doubled to center and scored Hyten. In this inning Jessen, who went in for Henieger, only let one man see second. In the eighth inning both teams failed to score.

In the last of the ninth Carterville scored two runs and it was all over. Pankey got seven strikeouts. Henieger got two strikeouts. Jessen got one strikeout. Coates got five strikeouts. Scott got one strikeout.

Two base hits, Johnson two, three base hits, Pernell one, and Sanders one.

Carbondale got twelve hits and Carterville seven.

Carbondale played a good game, but were nosed out in the ninth inning, due to one or two bad plays, with a few more weeks of practice they will have a real ball team. Keep up with the dope, boys. We are going to hit some fast company this year.

Y. M. AND Y. W. EXERT

It teaches through its hikes and summer camps the love of God's great outdoors.

It is not exclusive.

It gives us the good things that all red-blooded young people should like.

It is the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

Mr. Rockefeller has given a million dollars to promote education in art. Probably he wants to stimulate the demand for standard oil painting.

SOCRATIC SOCIETY

Last Friday night the Socrats gave one of their usual peppy programs. The program was made up of the following numbers:

Music—Socratic Six.

Reading—Lorraine Sawyer.

Stunt—Willard Gersbacher.

Piano Solo—Vivian Springer.

Play—Clark Bruce, Margaret Garrett.

The Socratic Jazz Six was a new attraction and was received with great enthusiasm by the audience.

The play, "A Pair of Lunatics", was well given and kept the listeners in a fit of laughter from the beginning to the end.

The entire program was exceptionally well given and enjoyed by all.

CLEAN SPORTSMANSHIP

What is meant by clean sportsmanship? Can it be purchased, bought or found? Is it something indefinite, unreal, mystic, chimera-like? Or is it something real and tangible? Is it commodity or quality?

Great men fall into oblivion because CLEAN SPORTSMANSHIP says "Thou shalt not enter." Men spring from the industrial scum, the circumstantial muck of humanity, rise to the height, attain glory, respect, often when they possess no special talent or genius. Why? Simply because THEY POSSESS THE ALL-TOO-RARE QUALITY OF CLEAN SPORTSMANSHIP.

CLEAN SPORTSMANSHIP means honesty absolute; forgetfulness of self; occasionally flesh pain, mental strain; intellectual dwarfing, and a relinquishment of the heart's chief desire; the evaporation of our lovely dreams and cherished hopes; perhaps a barring hand to a friend and open arms to an enemy.

"Then clean sportsmanship isn't worth while." No? Perhaps not in some ways neither financially, politically, nor commercially. But we are out in the west where the heavens dance with joy as they emerge from the crimped east and man, being in harmony with the elements above must rise to a mystic idea; must give all to that of which he is a part to the embodied spirit of the heaven. CLEAN SPORTSMANSHIP!

Mrs. Chastain, Miss Henderson, Miss Woody, Miss Trovillion, Mr. Jaquish and Mr. Hall acted as judges in the Intellectual contests at Anna-Jonesboro Community High school last Saturday. After the finals in the evening they were entertained at the home of Miss Mary Crawford at Jonesboro.

said "fellows") that the one in whose territory we are visiting is the speaker of the day. So today is Mr. Waller's day." After meeting Mr. Sinner later we're sure he could have made a bully speech, if it had not been for that "unwritten" law.

The committee were the guests of Mr. Shryock at Anthony Hall and left shortly afterward for Morphysboro and thence to their respective homes.

They were a jolly bunch of real men. The faculty and student body enjoy such "visitations."
